

CONFIRMED MODERATOR

Mr Sean CHIAO

October 2, 2017 – Jakarta Indonesia

Sean Chiao is President, Asia Pacific, at AECOM, a premier, fully integrated infrastructure firm that designs, builds, finances and operates assets for governments, businesses and organizations in over 150 countries. He oversees AECOM's business and over 12,000 employees across Greater China, Southeast Asia and Australia and New Zealand.

Sean has spearheaded strategic, award-winning masterplans for new towns and regeneration of existing urban landscapes including the Kuala Lumpur River of Life; the redevelopment of Metro Manila Fort Bonifacio's financial district in the Philippines; and the rejuvenation of Suzhou Industrial Park new town in China.

Attend

Plenary 1 – Resilient Infrastructure – What constitutes resilience?
What are the threats and challenges?

REGISTER NOW!

Professional Highlights

Member of Boards and Committees of:

Urban Land Institute

American Chamber of Commerce Hong Kong Board of Governors

AmCham

Harvard University's Master in Design Engineering External Advisory Board

University of Southern California's Board of Advisors for the American Academy in China

Testimonial

"It is fitting that FIDIC 2017 Conference is in Asia, home to the fastest, densest urbanization, and the most natural disasters this past decade. We crucially need platforms for stakeholders who each play a part in the built environment, to collaborate across disciplines, across borders to make it happen resiliently, sustainably."